Charging Bookstore Purchases to Financial Aid:

You may purchase books and supplies with aid that remains after tuition and fees are deducted. PELL, SEOG, Commonwealth are the federal and state programs that can cover books and supplies. You do not need a bookstore voucher. Simply go to the Danville Community College bookstore during the below timeframes with your Student ID number and your schedule of classes.

Semester:	You may charge books beginning:	No Book Charges after:
Summer 2020	May 7, 2020	June 19, 2020
Fall 2020	August 17, 2020	September 9, 2020
Spring 2021	January 4, 2021	January 27, 2021
Summer 2021	May 17, 2021	June 19, 2021

You should plan to purchase ALL books and supplies during these time. There will be no book charges after the date listed above. If the books you need are on back-order, please speak with the bookstore management for special arrangements. For Second Session Summer Classes, please check with the Financial Aid Office for availability of funds.

If you want to drop a class and return books, you must return your books before you drop the class. You must show your receipt AND do your return by the deadlines listed above.

Census Dates

The term “Census Date” refers to the point at which your enrollment is locked for financial aid purposes. At this point in the term, credit hours are locked and financial aid for the term is adjusted to reflect the official number of enrolled credits.

Please Note: If you are enrolled in all online classes or later starting classes, financial aid may be held until class participation can be verified.
