

2025-2026 Unusual Enrollment Review Form

Your 2025-2026 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been flagged for "Unusual Enrollment History Review" by the U.S. Department of Education, because you received Federal Pell Grant and/or Federal direct Loan funds at multiple education institutions during the review period 2021/22, 2022/23, 2023/24 and 2024/25. As a result of your unusual enrollment pattern, you will be required to provide additional information and submit additional documentation for further review. This information will be used to determine if the reasons for your unusual enrollment are valid, and if you are able to regain your financial aid eligibility.

What, You the Student, Must Do:

- 1. List each school that you attended and received a Pell Grant and/or Federal Direct Loan from during the review period of 2021/22, 2022/23, 2023/24 and 2024/25. (If all the schools attended are part of the Virginia Community College System, you must list each one below, but you do not need to submit a transcript.) You may access this information by going to the National Student Loan Data System (www.nsls.ed.gov), signing in with your username & password, and reviewing your federal financial aid history.

Table with 4 columns: Name of Institution, Review Period Attended, Received a Pell Grant and/or Federal Direct Loan Disbursement, Transcript Included for Review. Includes a sample row for 'Sample University'.

- 2. Provide transcripts from each institution of higher learning (college or university) you have attended.
3. Attach a typed and signed statement that describes, in detail, the reasons and extenuating circumstances that may have contributed to your failure to earn academic credit while attending the institutions for which you are providing transcripts. Be specific and concise in your explanation. Incomplete information may cause a delay in the review of your appeal or denial of your request. You must also include a plan to complete your current program.
4. Attach documentation in support of the reasons identified for your failure to earn academic credit at the institutions where academic credit was not earned. (Note: If you are providing medical documentation, or documentation from a business, it must be on the provider's letterhead.)
