TRIO Programs Advocacy Day - Walk the Hill

TRIO Programs Advocacy Day on Capitol Hill was Wednesday, March 22, 2023. TRIO professionals from all across the U.S. gathered together to “Walk the Hill” in support of first-generation, low-income students and their desire to attend college.

WORK STUDY OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS

Would you like to get paid for working on the DCC Campus for 12-15 hours a week?

If you are currently receiving the Federal Pell Grant and are enrolled in at least 6 credits that are eligible for financial aid, we may have a job for you!

Stop by the Financial Aid Office (Wyatt 111) to complete an application. Please bring a current resume if available.

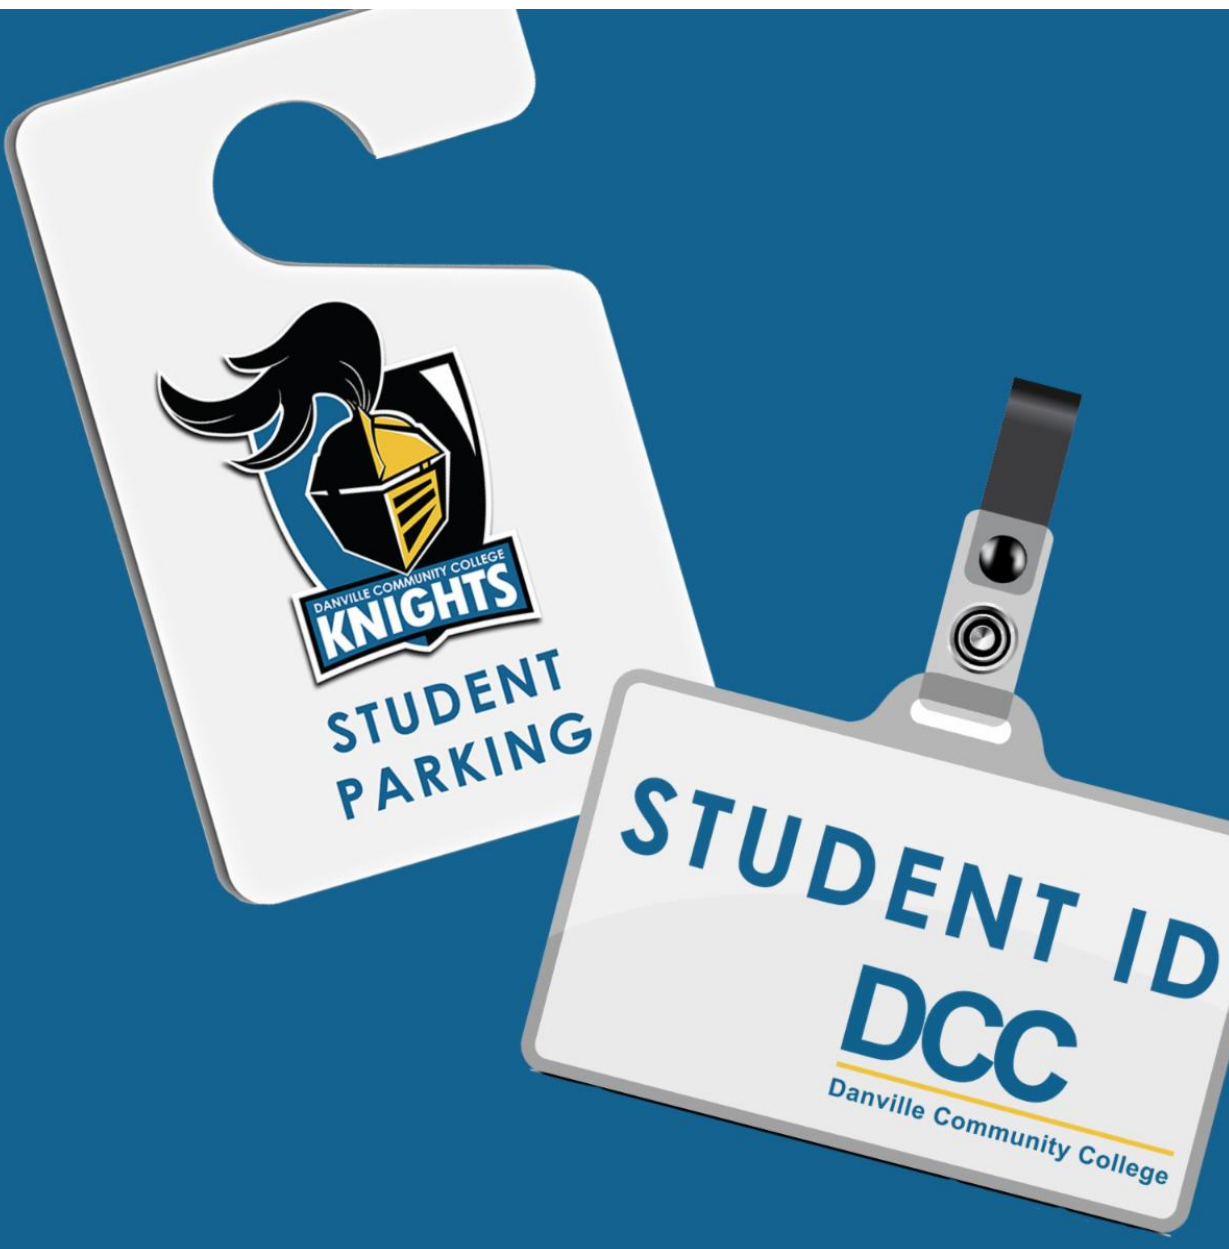

TRIO EOC Attends Mid-Eastern Association of Education Opportunity Program Personnel

DCC's TRIO EOC Project Director Sharon Harris attended the Mid-Eastern Association of Education Opportunity Program Personnel at the Maryland Live Casino and Hotel in Hanover, MD. Over 170 TRIO professionals from the 6-state region gathered to exchange ideas, make connections, and learn about the latest developments and trends supporting first-generation, low-income students' pursuit, retention, and graduation from college. Special guest speakers included Maureen Hoyler, President of the Council for Opportunity in Education, and Gaby Watts, Senior Director of Higher Education Programs, Office of Postsecondary Education, at the U.S. Department of Education along with some of her staff.

Sign Up for DCC Alert

The safety of our students is at the forefront of our minds as we strive to give you the best experience possible during your time at the college.

To that end, the college would like to take this opportunity to remind you of our policies regarding on-campus emergencies and weather-related closures or delays.

In order to ensure you have the most up-to-date information available, please take a moment to sign up for DCC Alert. This is the college's first line of communication to let you know when something has happened that affects you such as a closing due to a weather event.

You can also keep up with information about the college on DCC's Facebook page: www.facebook.com/dccpr
